

I am appalled at the decision of Sinclair Broadcasting to even consider airing the bogus "news story" on John Kerry. If it should be shown, then send it to public theatres, where it's a "pay as you go" proposition.

There is no public interest to be served by airing this "show." This is not a news story - this is a slam at all journalists who toil to report objectively.

Stop them now before it is too late.

And I should note, I am an independent, free-thinking voter. For years I have voted for the candidate I believe will do the best job, regardless of their party affiliation. Let's hope the FCC can support keeping the free airwaves clear of unpaid political rants, regardless of the political motives behind them.

Cordially, M. Elizabeth Dreistadt (A VOTER and television viewer)
